LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

"Love your enemies and do good to those who hate you." We do not like hearing these words, but they are at the heart of Jesus' teaching. When we are hurt, we want to get defensive and fight back. We prefer engaging in battle with something that is negative and evil rather than returning a heart of love. It is easy to love those who will love us back and much harder to love those who may not. But there is no credit to be found in simply surrounding ourselves with friends. Jesus wants to push us out of our comfort zones. We still find ourselves judging others and condemning them when the order of the Gospel is forgiveness and mercy. Why are we so unwilling to let go of the control? Perhaps the answer is found in a failure to love and an absence of faith.

Redemptorist Retreat Center — April 15 - 20, 2019

1800 N. Timber Trail Lane, Oconomowoc

"The Passion Narrative Through the Ears of a First Century Listener" Presented by: Fr. John Kingsbury, C.Ss.R.

Our Scriptures are translated texts from a different culture and a different time in history. Because of this some of the message of the Passion Narrative can be lost in our reflections. The goal of this Retreat is to unveil some of what could be overlooked by viewing the text from a First Century perspective. The retreat offers daily Mass, Conferences, Sacrament of Reconciliation, and private time for quiet prayer and reflection. On Holy Thursday and Good Friday we will celebrate the Catholic Liturgical Rites of the Sacred Triduum. Check-in on Monday, April 15 at 4:00 pm; evening meal will be provided. Retreat concludes after noon meal on Saturday, April 20. Fee: $ 350 includes private room with bath, linens, and great meals. To register or for more information: Call (262) – 567 – 6900 or go to www.redemptoristretreat.org
