LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Love of God and love of neighbor are intimately bound together. You cannot have one without the other. Who are my neighbor and how do I love them? It is easy to confess with our lips that we love our neighbor. But how does this get translated into action? Our neighbors are not only those who live around us or are most familiar to us. Everyone is our neighbor: those who are foreign to us, those who have come here illegally, those who have hurt us, those we envy, those we take for granted, and those who are poor. Embracing humanity in all of its forms is not always an easy task, and doing so can quickly take us out of our comfort zones. Working for justice, as God desires, often means adjusting how much I can have and sacrificing our wants and desires. The very image of God is on the faces of our neighbors, and our face can be found there as well. How much do we really love them?

NATIONAL VOCATIONS AWARENESS WEEK

November 4-10, 2018

As Catholics, we firmly believe that God has a plan for our lives! He calls some to marriage, some to the priesthood, and others to religious life. Some remain as generous single people. Fully living our own vocations - and teaching young people how to discern God's call - is a serious duty, but also a joyful one. Today begins National Vocation Awareness Week. During this week please pray for vocations, and pray about how God is calling you to live your vocation more deeply. Encourage the young people in your life-children, grandchildren, students and friends to be open if God calls them to the priesthood or religious life. For more information about vocation events or discernment resources visit thinkpriest.org, or contact the Vocation Office at vocationoffice@sfs.edu.

CHRISTIAN WOMEN CORNER

The Christian Women had a night out in support of the Seed of Hope Help Pregnancy Center on Friday, October 26. Many laughs were shared as we bid for our dessert, and we enjoyed our pumpkin cheesecake! Come to our next meeting to enjoy memories and cookies from this great event - and learn where the Seed of Hope is relocating. Father Davies and 9 Christian Women were in attendance.

Our Christmas luncheon at Ponderosa is at the end of the month on Sunday, November 25. Look for the sign-up sheet in the back of church!

Join us at our next meeting on Tuesday, November 13 at 6:30 p.m. in the newly finished St. Joseph's room.

Thanks for bringing your renowned tortes and pies to the Chili Supper on Sunday, November 4, along with baked goods for our bake sale!
